

IN THE

Court of Appeal of the State of California

IN AND FOR THE

Fifth Appellate District

F058637 In re M.S., a Minor

Counsel having failed to request oral argument in the above-entitled case, oral argument is deemed waived in accordance with the provisions of a notice heretofore mailed to counsel and the cause is submitted.

F058637 In re M. S., a Minor

The juvenile court's jurisdiction and disposition orders are reversed. The matter is remanded to the juvenile court for exercise of its discretion to determine, in view of the requirements set forth in Welfare and Institutions Code section 790 et seq. and California Rules of Court, rule 5.800, whether appellant should be granted deferred entry of judgment, provided appellant admits the allegations of the petition. Should appellant not admit the petition's allegations, or should the juvenile court, in its discretion, determine that deferred entry of judgment should not be granted, the court's jurisdiction and disposition orders are to be reinstated.

By the Court.
